Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Athens

3–4 days: the Acropolis, Plaka, the Agora and Lycabettus

Photo: Giles Laurent, CC BY-SA 4.0

Athens over a long weekend: the Acropolis and the Parthenon early in the morning, the Acropolis Museum, the lanes of Plaka and Anafiotika, the Ancient Agora, the changing of the guard at Parliament, and sunsets from Lycabettus and, with an extra day, at the Temple of Poseidon at Sounion. Metro and walking. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Greece is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Acropolis: timed entry

Acropolis tickets are sold online for a set time at hhticket.gr; come right at opening

Summer heat

July and August often top 35 °C, and there's no shade on the Acropolis

+1 h

time difference from Central Europe

Apr–Jun, Sep–Oct

the best months

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: Plaka

Plaka and Anafiotika, sunset on the Areopagus below the Acropolis.

2 Saturday: the Acropolis

The Acropolis right at opening, then the Acropolis Museum. Rest at midday, then the funicular up Lycabettus in the evening.

3 Sunday: the Agora

The Ancient Agora, the Sunday flea market in Monastiraki and the 11 am ceremonial changing of the guard at Parliament, then fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Giles Laurent, CC BY-SA 4.0

The Acropolis

The rocky hill of temples above the city, a UNESCO site.

Time: 3 hours

Photo: Steve Swayne, CC BY 2.0

The Parthenon

The temple of Athena from the 5th century BC.

Time: 1 hour

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Athens

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides