

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Barcelona

3–4 days: the Sagrada Família, Park Güell, the Gothic Quarter and the beach

Photo: Canaan, CC BY-SA 4.0

Barcelona over a long weekend: Gaudí's Sagrada Família, Park Güell and Casa Batlló, the lanes of the Gothic Quarter and El Born, La Boqueria market, views from Montjuïc and an afternoon on Barceloneta beach. Metro and walking. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Spain is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Gaudí: book ahead

the Sagrada Família and Park Güell's monumental zone use timed tickets; buy them ahead on the official sites

Tourist tax

charged per night at your accommodation; Barcelona raised it in April 2026

Checked

Same time

as in Central Europe

May–Jun, Sep–Oct

the best months: warm, with sea

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the Gothic Quarter

The Gothic Quarter and cathedral, El Born and Santa Maria del Mar, tapas in the evening.

2 Saturday: Gaudí

The Sagrada Família in the morning with a booking, Passeig de Gràcia with Casa Batlló and La Pedrera, the cable car up Montjuïc for sunset.

3 Sunday: Park Güell, the sea

Park Güell in the morning, then Barceloneta beach and fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Sagrada Família

Gaudí's unfinished basilica, a forest of columns and coloured light inside.

Time: 2 hours

Park Güell

Mosaics, the dragon and a view over the city.

Time: 2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Barcelona

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides