Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Venice

3–4 days: San Marco, the Grand Canal, Rialto and Burano

Photo: Zairon, CC BY-SA 4.0

Venice over a long weekend: a vaporetto ride down the Grand Canal, St Mark's Basilica and the Doge's Palace, the Rialto Bridge, the lanes of Dorsoduro and Cannaregio, cicchetti in bacari bars and a trip to colourful Murano and Burano. On foot and by boat. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Italy is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Access fee

day visitors pay on set days (in 2026 April–July, mainly weekends, 8:30 am–4 pm): €5 if paid 4 days ahead, otherwise €10; overnight guests are exempt; calendar on cda.ve.it

Checked

Vaporetto

for several rides a day, a 1–7-day pass pays off

Same time

as in Central Europe

Apr–Jun, Sep–Oct

the best months

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the Grand Canal

Vaporetto line 1 down the whole Grand Canal, a walk to the Rialto Bridge.

2 Saturday: San Marco

St Mark's Basilica and the Doge's Palace with the Bridge of Sighs, Dorsoduro in the afternoon, cicchetti in the evening.

3 Sunday: Murano and Burano

The vaporetto to Murano and Burano in the morning, then head home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

St Mark's Basilica

Golden mosaics and Byzantine domes.

Time: 1 hour

Rialto Bridge

The oldest bridge over the Grand Canal, with a market beside it.

Time: 1 hour

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Venice

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides