

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 6 NOV 2026

Croatia

10 days: Plitvice, Krka, Split and Dubrovnik

Photo: Tesla Delacroix, CC BY-SA 4.0

The Dalmatian coast at a relaxed pace: Zadar's sunsets, the lakes of Plitvice, Krka's waterfalls, Roman Split with an island day, and the walls of Dubrovnik. A one-way rental car links it all. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card
is enough for Czech citizens; Croatia is in the EU and Schengen

Euro
Croatia has used the euro since 2023

0 h
same time as Central Europe

Plitvice
tickets online with a time slot in high season

Checked

May–Jun, Sep–Oct
the best months: warm sea, fewer crowds than July and August

Pelješac Bridge
the coast road to Dubrovnik no longer has to cross Bosnia and Herzegovina

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive in Zadar

Pick up the car, evening on the waterfront: the Sea Organ and Greeting to the Sun at sunset.

2 Plitvice

Early start to the lakes (booked time slot), walk the lower and upper lakes, back to Zadar.

3 To Šibenik

Zadar old town in the morning, St James Cathedral in Šibenik in the afternoon.

4

5

6

7

8

9

... and 7 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Zysko serhii, CC BY-SA 4.0

Plitvice Lakes

Sixteen terraced lakes joined by waterfalls and wooden walkways. Book a morning time slot and keep to the boardwalks.

Time: 1 day

Photo: Rkoster, CC BY 4.0

Krka National Park

Wide travertine waterfalls at Skradinski buk. Swimming under the falls is no longer allowed; walk the loop path instead.

Time: half a day

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Croatia

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides