

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Denmark with Legoland

7 days: Legoland, LEGO House, Copenhagen and Tivoli

Photo: kallerna, CC BY-SA 4.0

Denmark with kids: two days in Billund at Legoland and LEGO House, the Lalandia water park, then Copenhagen with the Tivoli Gardens, the Blue Planet aquarium, colourful Nyhavn and a canal tour. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Denmark is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

An ID for every child

every child needs their own valid travel document; if only one parent travels, a written consent from the other is useful (Czech MFA)

Checked

Legoland: seasonal

Legoland opens roughly spring to autumn and Tivoli only in seasons; check dates online

Krone (DKK), pricey

cards work almost everywhere

Jun–Aug

the best months: long days, everything open

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive

Arrive in Billund and rest.

2 Legoland

A full day at Legoland.

3 LEGO House and Lalandia

LEGO House in the morning, the Lalandia water park in the afternoon.

4

5

6

7

... and 4 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Andrzej Otrębski, CC BY-SA 4.0

Legoland

The original Legoland with Miniland and rides for all ages.

Time: 1 day

Photo: FreeSoft, CC BY-SA 4.0

LEGO House

The house of bricks with building zones and games.

Time: half a day

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Denmark with Legoland

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides