Paris with kids: two days at Disneyland Paris in both parks, then the Eiffel Tower, a Seine boat, the Jardin d'Acclimatation and its rides, the Cité des sciences and its children's zone, and toy boats in the Luxembourg Gardens. RER and metro. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

France is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

An ID for every child

every child needs their own valid travel document; if only one parent travels, a written consent from the other is useful (Czech MFA)

Checked

Tickets ahead

buy Disneyland tickets online for set dates; they're often cheaper than at the gate

RER A

Paris to Disneyland (Marne-la-Vallée–Chessy) takes about 40 minutes

Outside school holidays

weekdays outside French school holidays have the shortest queues

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended
