Lake Garda with kids

8 days: Gardaland, the Monte Baldo cable car, boats and swimming

Lake Garda with kids: a day at Gardaland, a safari at Parco Natura Viva, boats across the lake to Sirmione and Limone, the rotating cable car up Monte Baldo and plenty of swimming on pebble beaches. Two bases, short drives, and a one-day drive from Central Europe. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Italy is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

An ID for every child

every child needs their own valid travel document; if only one parent travels, a written consent from the other is useful (Czech MFA)

Checked

Motorway vignette

driving through Austria needs a motorway vignette; the Brenner and Italian motorways are tolled

Gardaland: seasonal the park opens roughly spring to autumn and at Christmas; dates and tickets on gardaland.it

Jun, Sep

the best months: warm water, fewer people than August

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended
