Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Dubrovnik

3–4 days: the walls, the Stradun, Lokrum island and the Srđ cable car

Photo: Miroslav.vajdic, CC BY-SA 4.0

Dubrovnik over a long weekend: a walk on the walls above the sea, the marble Stradun, a boat to Lokrum island and its peacocks, the cable car up Srđ for sunset, Lovrijenac fortress and evenings in the Old Town. On foot and by boat. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Croatia is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Euro

Croatia uses the euro

Walls early walk the walls right at opening; midday is hot and crowded with cruise passengers

Same time

as in Central Europe

May–Jun, Sep–Oct

the best months: warm, fewer crowds

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the Stradun

Pile Gate, the Stradun, the Rector's Palace and the old harbour, dinner in the Old Town.

2 Saturday: walls and Lokrum

The walls right at opening, a boat to Lokrum for a swim in the afternoon, the cable car up Srđ for sunset.

3 Sunday: Lovrijenac

Lovrijenac fortress and its view of the walls, then fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

The walls

Nearly 2 km of walls around the Old Town above the sea.

Time: 2 hours

The Stradun

The Old Town's marble main street.

Time: 1 hour

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Dubrovnik

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides