Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Edinburgh

3–4 days: the castle, the Royal Mile, Arthur's Seat and Dean Village

Photo: Daniel Kraft, CC BY-SA 3.0

Edinburgh over a long weekend: the castle on its rock, the Royal Mile and its closes, Holyrood Palace, the climb up the extinct volcano of Arthur's Seat, sunset from Calton Hill, Dean Village and whisky in a pub. On foot and by tram. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

Passport only

the UK is not in the EU: an ID card is not enough, you need a passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

ETA in advance

an ETA on gov.uk/eta or the UK ETA app, £20 since 8 Apr 2026, valid 2 years

Checked

5% visitor levy

since 24 Jul 2026 Edinburgh charges 5% of the room price for the first 5 nights (City of Edinburgh Council)

Checked

−1 h

time difference from Central Europe

May–Sep

the best months; festivals and high prices in August

Type G plugs

British-style sockets: bring an adapter

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the Royal Mile

The Royal Mile, St Giles' Cathedral and Victoria Street, sunset from Calton Hill in the evening.

2 Saturday: castle and volcano

The castle in the morning with a booking, the Grassmarket, then the climb up Arthur's Seat and Holyrood Palace in the afternoon. Whisky in a pub in the evening.

3 Sunday: Dean Village

A walk along the Water of Leith to Dean Village and the Sunday market in Stockbridge, then fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Daniel Kraft, CC BY-SA 3.0

Edinburgh Castle

The castle on a volcanic rock, home of the Scottish crown jewels.

Time: 2.5 hours

Photo: Kim Traynor, CC BY-SA 3.0

The Royal Mile

The Old Town's main street between the castle and the palace.

Time: 2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Edinburgh

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides