

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Faroe Islands

8 days: Tórshavn, Vágar, Eysturoy and Kalsoy

Photo: Mike Maguire, CC BY 2.0

The Faroe Islands your way: the Múlafossur waterfall dropping into the ocean at Gásadalur, the lake of Sørvágsvatn above the cliffs, villages with grass roofs, the Kallur lighthouse on Kalsoy and puffins on Mykines. A rental car, undersea tunnels and ferries. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

Outside the EU and Schengen

the islands belong to Denmark but aren't in the EU or Schengen; EU citizens visa-free up to 90 days

Checked

Passport

the Czech MFA recommends a passport; travelling on an ID card alone isn't recommended

Checked

−1 h

time difference from Central Europe, winter and summer

May–Aug

the best months: long days, puffins and open trails

Weather

changes within minutes; fog and wind are normal

Plugs

European type C/F and Danish K, 230 V

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive

Pick up the car, drive to Tórshavn, the harbour in the evening.

2 Tórshavn

The grass-roofed old quarter of Tinganes, a trip to Kirkjubøur.

3 To Vágar

Múlafossur waterfall at Gásadalur, the Sørvágsvatn cliff walk in the afternoon.

4

5

6

7

8

... and 5 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Mike Maguire, CC BY 2.0

Múlafossur

A waterfall falling from a cliff into the ocean below Gásadalur.

Time: 1 hour

Photo: kallerna, CC BY-SA 4.0

Sørvágsvatn

A lake that, from the cliffs, seems to hang above the sea.

Time: 3 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Faroe Islands

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides