Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Florence

3–4 days: the Duomo, the Uffizi, David and Ponte Vecchio

Photo: Gary Campbell-Hall, CC BY 2.0

Florence over a long weekend: the climb up Brunelleschi's dome, the Uffizi, Michelangelo's David, Ponte Vecchio, Palazzo Pitti and the Boboli Gardens, and sunset from Piazzale Michelangelo. All on foot. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Italy is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Dome: book ahead

the climb up Brunelleschi's dome requires a reserved time on duomo.firenze.it

Closed Mondays

the Uffizi and the Accademia (David) are closed on Mondays

Same time

as in Central Europe

Apr–Jun, Sep–Oct

the best months

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the centre

The Duomo from outside, Piazza della Signoria, Ponte Vecchio at sunset.

2 Saturday: the Uffizi, the dome

The Uffizi in the morning with a booking, the climb up Brunelleschi's dome in the afternoon, the Oltrarno in the evening.

3 Sunday: David

Michelangelo's David at the Accademia, the Mercato Centrale and the Piazzale Michelangelo view, then head home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Gary Campbell-Hall, CC BY 2.0

The Duomo

The cathedral with the world's largest brick dome.

Time: 2 hours

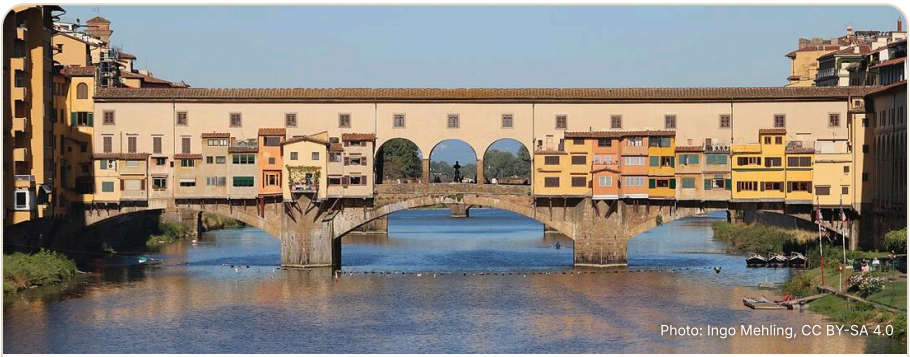

Photo: Ingo Mehling, CC BY-SA 4.0

Ponte Vecchio

The medieval bridge lined with goldsmiths.

Time: 30 minutes

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Florence

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides