Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Helsinki and Tallinn

3–4 days: Suomenlinna, a sauna, the ferry across the gulf and Tallinn's Old Town

Photo: Migro, Public domain

Two capitals in one weekend: Helsinki with Suomenlinna fortress, the harbour market, the rock church and a Finnish sauna by the sea, then a ferry of about two hours across the Gulf of Finland to Tallinn and its medieval Old Town, the Toompea viewpoints and the Telliskivi district. Fly into one and home from the other. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Finland and Estonia are in the EU and Schengen: a valid ID card or passport is enough (Czech MFA)

Checked

Ferry about 2 hours

Tallink, Viking Line and Eckerö sail between Helsinki and Tallinn many times a day; book ahead

Euro in both

both use the euro and cards work everywhere

+1 h

time difference from Central Europe

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: Helsinki

Senate Square and the cathedral, the Orthodox Uspenski Cathedral, the Kauppatori market and the Old Market Hall. The Temppeliaukio rock church and a seaside sauna in the evening.

2 Saturday: Suomenlinna and the ferry

A 20-minute city ferry to Suomenlinna fortress in the morning. The ferry to Tallinn in the afternoon, then an evening walk through the Old Town and Town Hall Square.

3 Sunday: Tallinn

Toompea and the Kohtuotsa and Patkuli viewpoints, Alexander Nevsky Cathedral, the walls and towers, lunch in Telliskivi, then fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

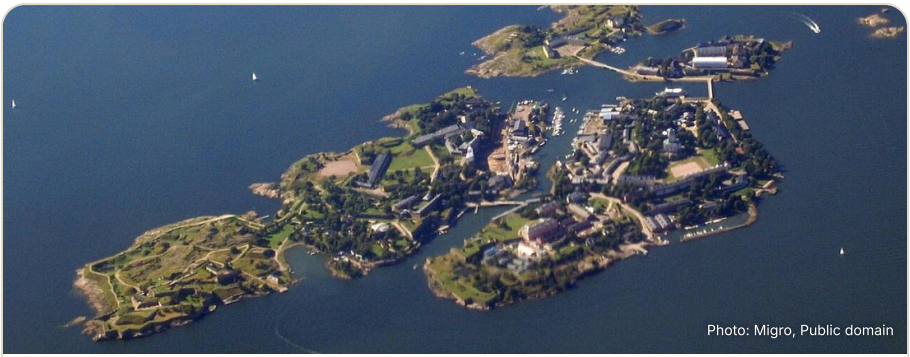

Photo: Migro, Public domain

Suomenlinna

A sea fortress on islands, a UNESCO site.

Time: half a day

Photo: Bahnfrend, CC BY-SA 4.0

Senate Square

The white Lutheran cathedral above its steps.

Time: 1 hour

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Helsinki and Tallinn

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides