

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Madrid

3–4 days: the Prado, the Royal Palace, Retiro and El Rastro

Photo: Tim Adams, CC BY-SA 4.0

Madrid over a long weekend: the Prado and Guernica at the Reina Sofía, the Royal Palace, Retiro Park, tapas in La Latina and, with an extra day, the high-speed train to medieval Toledo. Metro and walking. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Spain is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Free Prado evenings

the Prado is free for the last two hours (Mon–Sat 6–8 pm, Sun 5–7 pm); expect a queue

Toledo in 33 minutes

high-speed train from Atocha; tickets on renfe.com

Same time

as in Central Europe

Apr–Jun, Sep–Oct

the best months

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the centre

Puerta del Sol, Plaza Mayor and the Mercado de San Miguel, tapas in La Latina in the evening.

2 Saturday: the palace, the Prado

The Royal Palace in the morning, Retiro Park and the Prado in its free hours in the afternoon, Gran Vía in the evening.

3 Sunday: El Rastro

The Sunday El Rastro flea market, then the Reina Sofía and Guernica, and fly home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

The Royal Palace

One of Europe's largest palaces.

Time: 2 hours

The Prado

Velázquez, Goya and El Greco in one of the world's great museums.

Time: 3 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Madrid

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides