

Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Mexico: Yucatán

13 days: Mérida, cenotes, Chichén Itzá, Bacalar and Tulum

Photo: Daniel Schwen, CC BY-SA 4.0

The Yucatán by car: colonial Mérida and Mayan Uxmal, Chichén Itzá at opening time, swimming in cenotes around Valladolid, the seven-colour lagoon of Bacalar, and finally Tulum and Caribbean beaches. A loop from Cancún and back. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

Visa-free
Czech citizens as tourists for up to 180 days; the officer at the border decides the length of stay

Border documents
the Czech MFA recommends printed accommodation bookings, a return ticket and proof of funds, ideally in Spanish

Checked

E-gates
at Cancún and Mexico City you can use automatic gates with just your passport; keep the printed confirmation

Checked

−6 h
time difference from Central Europe in winter in Cancún and Tulum, −7 h in Mérida; one hour more in summer

Nov–Apr
the best months: dry and fewer mosquitoes

Plugs type A/B, 127 V: bring an adapter

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive

Car in Cancún, sleep near the airport or drive straight to Mérida.

2 Mérida

The main square, the cathedral, Paseo de Montejo, dancing in the square in the evening.

3 Uxmal

The Mayan city of Uxmal in the Puuc hills, haciendas on the way.

4

5

6

7

8

9

... and 10 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Chichén Itzá

The Kukulcán pyramid and Mayan city, one of the New Seven Wonders. In the morning before the coaches it feels completely different.

Time: half a day

Uxmal

The most elegant Mayan city of the Puuc region, with the Pyramid of the Magician and carved facades.

Time: 3 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Mexico: Yucatán

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides