Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Oslo

3–4 days: the Opera roof, Vigeland Park, the Munch and the fjord islands

Photo: Pierre Blaché, CC0

Oslo over a long weekend: a walk across the Opera House roof, the Munch museum and The Scream, the sculptures of Vigeland Park, the Bygdøy museums with the polar ship Fram and the Kon-Tiki, the metro up to the Holmenkollen ski jump and a city-transport ferry to the fjord islands. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Norway isn't in the EU but is in Schengen and the EEA: a valid ID card or passport is enough (Czech MFA)

Checked

EHIC valid

the European Health Insurance Card is valid in Norway; travel insurance is still recommended

Norwegian krone, cashless card or phone almost everywhere

Ferries included

ferries to the fjord islands run on regular Ruter tickets

Same time

as in Central Europe

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Friday: the Opera and the Munch

Up the Opera House roof, the Munch museum next door and a waterfront walk to Akershus Fortress. Aker Brygge in the evening.

2 Saturday: Bygdøy

Vigeland Park in the morning, then bus 30 or the summer boat to Bygdøy: the Fram and Kon-Tiki museums and the Norsk Folkemuseum open-air museum. Grünerløkka in the evening.

3 Sunday: Holmenkollen

Metro line 1 up to Holmenkollen for the ski jump and fjord views, then head home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Pierre Blaché, CC0

Opera House

The white building you can walk right up and over.

Time: 1 hour

Photo: Christian David, CC BY-SA 4.0

Vigeland Park

Over 200 sculptures by Gustav Vigeland, free to enter.

Time: 1–2 hours

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Oslo

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides