Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Greece

10 days: Athens, Naxos and Santorini

Photo: Giles Laurent, CC BY-SA 4.0

Greece your way: the Acropolis and the tavernas of Plaka, then a ferry to Naxos with its mountain villages and sandy beaches, and Santorini's white houses on the edge of the caldera to finish. Two ferries and no car needed. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

Documents
an EU ID card or passport is enough; Greece is in the EU and Schengen

Checked

Acropolis
tickets only from the official hhticket.gr for a set time slot; buy them in advance

Checked

Euro
you pay in euros, cards are accepted almost everywhere

+1 h
time difference from Central Europe, winter and summer

May–Jun, Sep–Oct
the best months: a warm sea without the biggest crowds or heat

Plugs
European type C/F, 230 V

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1 Arrive

Metro from the airport to the centre, a walk through Plaka in the evening.

2 The Acropolis

The first time slot of the morning at the Acropolis, then the Acropolis Museum.

3 Athens

The Ancient Agora, Varvakios market, sunset on Lycabettus.

4

5

6

7

8

9

... and 7 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Photo: Giles Laurent, CC BY-SA 4.0

The Acropolis

The Parthenon and temples above Athens, a UNESCO site. Come at opening time.

Time: 3 hours

Photo: Joanbanjo, CC BY-SA 3.0

Plaka

Athens' oldest quarter below the Acropolis, with narrow lanes and tavernas.

Time: evening

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Greece

12 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €9

Your Way Away · personal travel guides