The Algarve at an easy pace

8 days: Lagos, the Ponta da Piedade cliffs, Sagres and quiet Tavira

Photo: en, CC BY-SA 3.0

The Algarve for parents and anyone who wants sun and sea without the rush: two bases, the golden cliffs and caves of Ponta da Piedade by boat, the end of Europe at Sagres, old Faro, and quiet Tavira with its Roman bridge and island beach. Short transfers, plenty of cafés and fish. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

Day by day

1 Arrival

Transfer to Lagos and an evening walk around the marina.

2 Lagos

The walled old town, Santo António church and lunch by the harbour. Meia Praia beach in the afternoon, reached on the level.

3 Ponta da Piedade

A morning boat from the marina to the caves and arches, about an hour on calm seas. Take a taxi up to the viewpoint; the steps down to the water are steep.
