Your Way Away

SAMPLE CHECKED 7 NOV 2026

Vienna

3–4 days: Schönbrunn, the Hofburg, the Belvedere and Viennese cafés

Photo: C.Stadler/Bwag, CC BY-SA 4.0

Vienna over a long weekend: Schönbrunn Palace, the Hofburg and the Sisi Museum, Klimt's Kiss at the Belvedere, St Stephen's Cathedral, the Naschmarkt, the Prater and afternoons in coffee houses. By train from Prague, around town by U-Bahn and tram. Book everything yourself and keep this guide on your phone: it works offline.

At a glance

ID card is enough

Austria is in the EU and Schengen: Czech citizens need only a valid ID card or passport (Czech MFA)

Checked

Schönbrunn: timed entry

Schönbrunn Palace uses timed tickets; buy online ahead in season

4 hours by train

direct trains from Prague; tickets on cd.cz

Same time

as in Central Europe

Apr–Oct, Dec

the best months; Christmas markets in December

EHIC

the European Health Insurance Card is valid; travel insurance is still recommended

Tags: Checked confirmed with a current source on the date on the cover · Estimate approximate value.

Day by day

1

Friday: the centre

St Stephen's Cathedral, the Graben, then a coffee house and a slice of Sachertorte.

2

Saturday: Schönbrunn

Schönbrunn Palace and the Gloriette in the morning, the Naschmarkt and its flea market in the afternoon, the opera in the evening.

3

Sunday: the Hofburg, the Belvedere

The Hofburg and the Sisi Museum, Klimt's Kiss at the Belvedere, then head home.

4

... and 1 more days, day by day, in the full guide

What you will see

Schönbrunn

The Habsburg summer palace with gardens and the Gloriette, a UNESCO site.

Time: half a day

St Stephen's Cathedral

The Gothic landmark with its patterned roof.

Time: 1 hour

+ 4 more places with photos and tips in the full guide

The full guide: Vienna

11 pages, in English and Czech. Checked on the date on the cover.

- The whole route day by day, with nights in each place
- When to go, month by month
- Every place with photos and how long to spend
- Getting around, where to stay, money and food
- Manners, safety and a before-you-go checklist
- Official links and sources

Buy the full guide for €5

Your Way Away · personal travel guides